REQUEST FOR ENTRY OF PAPERS PREVIOUSLY SUBMITTED

Sir:

We understand that the papers associated with our response filed 07/22/2008 have not been entered into the official record. However, the fees associated with the response have been withdrawn from the relevant Deposit Account, indicating that the papers were received by the USPTO but not properly entered.

As suggested by Examiner Frazier, we are resubmitting a complete copy of the response, including the Certificate of Mailing. The Certificate of Mailing serves as proof of the response date. The complete copy of the response is attached to this letter. Applicants believe that no further fee is due for entry of the 07/22/2008 response because fees have already been withdrawn from the Deposit Account.

We request that the papers be entered into the record, given the response filing date of 07/22/2008 and that the statutory period for response be tolled.

Applicants believe that no fee is due with this paper. However, should the USPTO determine that a fee is necessary, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any additional fees associated with this communication or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 50-1953.

Date: 31 July 2008Respectfully submitted,
